NEWSLETTER - FEBRUARY 1992

The 1992 series of club get-togethers and film/video screenings gets under way on TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 25TH., at the usual venue, the A.M.P.Theatrette - and present plans are that with your continued support, further "movie night" dates to put in your diary now for this year will be -

MAY 12 (Combined night with the "Al Jolson Society")
AUGUST 25
OCTOBER 31 — ? (SAT)
DECEMBER 1

In between times, you can enjoy Bing at home with the help of some new releases. In the shops now are a new video cassette, "THE MAGIC OF BING CROSBY" (Pt.1) running approx. 1 hour - and four CD'S:-

"BING SWINGS" - with the John Scott Trotter Orchestra and Tommy Dorsey, Louis Armstrong, Peggy Lee, Joe Venuti, Jack Teagarden, Buddy Cole and The Rhythmaires.(Restored & edited in the digital domain)

"IT'S A GOOD DAY" - Bing with Peggy Lee and special guest, Fred Astaire.

"BING CROSBY - A VISIT TO THE MOVIES"

"BING CROSBY - 16 ORIGINAL WORLD HITS" (from the Rainbow "Music for Pleasure" series)

PROGRAMME - TUESDAY FEB.25

Main Feature - the 1947 movie, "WELCOME STRANGER," with Bing joined by Barry Fitzgerald, Joan Caulfied, and a strong supporting cast including Wanda Hendrix, Frank Faylen and Percy ("Pa Kettle") Kilbride. Although the plot repeats the "old versus young" theme of "Going My Way" (this time with Bing and Barry as doctors) "Welcome Stranger" was warmly reviewed as "having its own special charm." And enjoyment is heightened, not only by the excellent cast, but also by an appealing country-town setting, and top songs including "Smile Right Back at the Sun," "My Heart is a Hobo," "As Long as I'm Dreaming," and the square-dance hit, "Country Style."

Supporting Feature: The Russ Columbo film, "WAKE UP AND DREAM."
